Casing has been set and cemented but has been slightly delayed on account of fishing job on tools but these are being removed. The bailer on being run shows considerable oil, gas and parafine. Many scouts are in evidence and it is their belief that on the removal of 100 feet perforated pipe at the bottom will result in this well coming in.

YALE LOOKS TO HARVARD GAME WITH MUCH HOPE

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Considering that in sixteen years Yale has not scored a touchdown on Harvard's field and that in the same period Yale has scored only one touchdown against Harvard any place, it can be realized with what hope for a feast Yale looks to the battle with Harvard next Saturday in Cambridge.

Yale seems to have one of the best teams in its history. Certainly it is the best eleven that has represented Yale since Cupil Black's fine team of 1916.

Harvard apparently has the worst team of years and Harvard feels at heart that the only chance for victory rests in the possibility that Yale will beat itself.

Cook And Cox Rest In Jail Under Sentence

FOR WORTH, Texas, Nov. 22.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, self-styled discoverer of the North Pole; S. E. J. Cox, Houston oil promoter and the 12 other defendants in the mail fraud trials in federal court here who were found guilty yesterday, rested today in the county jail.

No favoritism was shown to Cook by jail attendants. He was in an ordinary dingey cell just as were the others.

Last night, after sentence had been pronounced on the men by Federal Judge John M. Killits, the "hoodlum wagon" backed up to the door of the federal building and Cook and his associates in the Petroleum Producers Association were driven off to jail while the wives of 11 of the prisoners sobbed on the steps of the building.

Cook's appeal bond was set at $75,000 by Judge Killits. Joseph W. Bailey, chief counsel for the defense declared his client would be unable to furnish this sum. This means that Cook will have to spend probably a year in jail while his case is going through the courts.

Even should he be able to furnish the amount, it will be several weeks before he can raise the bond, Bailey said.

Cook and Cox refused to talk to newspaper men today. They had nothing to say when Judge Killits interrogated them last night although others of the defendants argued with the court.

Three other indictments are still pending against Cook.

Charged with fraud in the "merging" of his Texas Eagle Oil company with the Revere Oil company, Cook will go to trial again December 10 in Fort Worth. There are 30 defendants in all in this case.

He is also under indictment in Cleveland in connection with distribution of stock and literature of the Petroleum Producers Association in Ohio.

The third indictment is lodged against Cook in Los Angeles in connection with the operations of the Revere Oil company there.

Federal officials today predicted wholesale pleas of guilty in these trials as a result of the sentencing of the 14 men here yesterday.

FORT WORTH, Texas, Nov. 22.—The jury in the trial of Dr. Frederick A. Cook and his 14 associates who are charged with using the mails to defraud in connection with promotion of the Petroleum Producers Association, resumed its deliberations shortly after 9 a. m. today.

The case went to the jury late Tuesday.

FORT WORTH, Texas, Nov. 22.—Just a year ago, Dr. Frederick A. Cook as head of the Petroleum Producers Association, was sending out circulars and letters to prospective buyers of oil stock in his company branding the fake oil promoter as the "most contemptible human wretch breathes God's pure air."

Today, Cook with 13 of his associates are in the Tarrant county jail here, found guilty in charges of using the mails to defraud in the sale of oil stock.

Robert E. Lee was the foreman of the jury that found Cook and others guilty.

WALTON'S CASE IS CARRIED TO THE SUPREME COURTS

OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok., Nov. 22.—The case of J. C. Walton, ousted Governor, was carried to the United States Supreme Court today. Appeal bond was to be made by the Walton defense today, which would take the case out of the State and definitely establish the question before the highest court of the land.

"We will ask tht the Supreme Court grant a writ of error covering the trial based upon the refusal of the court to certify a record transcript of the proceedings and their denial of the entrance of a bill of exceptions," Chief Defense Counsel Riddle declared.

House investigation of its membership continued today with a resolution recommending the removal of Guy Sigler, Ardmore representative, charged with trafficking in pardons, was slated for consideration at the morning session.

Charles H. Ruth, Supreme Court commissioner and Walton supporter, who was impeached by a vote of more than 80 to 1, in the House late yesterday upon allegations of bartering in clemency writs, declared today he would fight the charges to the end. Some Good Advice For One Capable Of Giving A Tip

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 22.—Take it from one who knows, boys, and don't obey that impulse to quit school and take up the life of a "Knight of the Road."

So says Jeff Davis, who calls himself "King of the Hobo Clan," Davis stopped in El Paso recently.

The world doesn't look nearly so attractive from a rattling "side door Pullman" as it does from the front door steps, he says.

And Jeff should know. He's traveled around the world he says, and is now on his sixth circuit jaunt. He estimates he has "hoboed" some 800,000 miles.

To those who have already heeded the urge of the wanderlust, Davis says:

"Chase yourself home, boy; brush the cobwebs from the lips of your ma with a kiss. You guys don't know what the old fireplace really means until you go nuts and think you ought to see the world from the door of a box car."

Seventy five thousand of the boys now in reform schools are there because of bad habits picked up on the bum, Davis said, in a parting word of advise to those inclined to trip the lee to the far places.

"The world is traveling at too fast a clip," Davis said.

"What we need is a return to the good old days of Grandpa and Grandma."

Auction Sale Big Success

The Conyers Live Stock & Feed Corporation held an auction sale of horses and mules at Mexia on Monday, November 19th. They had many buyers from various parts of Central and East Texas as well as many buyers from the local territory and sold all they had at this sale. The Conyers people state that they expect to make Mexia one of the leading horse and mule markets of Central Texas. They have advertised another sale for Nov. 26th.

The wholesale industry will widen Mexia trade territory as it will bring many people to Mexia to buy their stock animals who have not in the past been doing business in this city.

"JUST TOWN TALK"

By GUMP

I WAS informed

EARLY THIS morning

BY A local "addict"

THAT THE "Open Season"

ON THE "Radio Bug"

HAS BEEN officially announced.

AND THAT from now on

UNTIL WELL into summer

ONE CAN expect

TO BE annoyed

TO A certain extent

BY WEATHER reports

AND BED time stories

AND ALL such like

AND THEN he told me

THAT HE had invested

IN A complete new set

AND HE confided in me

THAT IN his estimation

THE PERFECTING of Radio

WAS A great advancement

IN WORLD science

AND WENT on to say

THAT IT should rank

AS THE eighth wonder

OF THE world

AS IT eclipsed

TELEGRAPH AND telephone

AND THE talking machine

AND EXTOLLED in detail

ITS MARVELOUS virtues

AND HOW it was

IF YOU didn't like

WHAT YOU were hearing

YOU COULD shut it off

AND TRY something else

AND THEN he explained

THAT WHILE radio was new

THE PRINCIPLE was old

JUST LIKE the talking machine

THE FIRST one was made

FROM AN ordinary rib

THEN TOM Edison came along

AND INVENTED one

THAT COULD be shut off

AND I was convince

THAT THE radio

WAS AFTER all

MERELY THE adaptation

OF EARLIER principles

I THANK you.

How Doctors Treat Colds And The Flu.

First Step in Treatment is the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets That Are Nauseless, Safe and Sure.

Doctors have found by experience that no medicine for colds, coughs, sore throat, and influenza can be depended upon for full effectiveness until the liver is made thoroughly active. That is why the first step in the treatment is the nauseless calomel tablets called Calotabs, which are free from the sickening and weakening effects of the old style calomel. Doctors also point out the fact that an active liver may go a long way towards preventing influenza and colds and is one of the most important factors in enabling the patient to successfully withstand an attack and ward off pneumonia.

One or two Calotabs at bed time, with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified, and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Genuine Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large, family-package; ten cents for the small, vest-pocket size. —(Adv.)

FORESTRY AND RECLAMATION CONFERENCE STRESSES PLANS

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21.—The forestry, reclamation and home-making conference in session here today stressed the following program:

More liberal Federal aid in preventing forest fires.

Selective immigration and a more equitable distribution of immigrants.

Equalization of taxation to make reforestration practicable for large land owners.

Speakers from Western States pledged their assistance to the effort of the South to obtain Federal assistance in reclamation work.

Congressman Addison Smith of Idaho, presided at the morning session which was devoted to discussion of various Southern reclamation projects. Smith told of strides made in settlement of Western farm land since the enactment of the Federal reclamation law.

WHOLE CITY BUILT FOR "VIRGINIAN"

Where will the "locations" for big feature productions of the future be found?

With the tendency of film production running toward the elaborate, unusual pictures that require the building of really stupendous settings, location hunters for Los Angeles producers have found that the big open spaces once so common in and about the city are becoming alarmingly few.

The location question has been raised through the difficulties that presented themselves during the filming of H. P. Schulberg's picturization of "The Virginian," which required a faithful reproduction of the town of Casper, Wyoming, just as it looked when Owen Wister first visited it to write his epic of the West.

Finding a spot near the city big enough to permit the building of the picturesque town was itself a task. But a conscientious effort to actually reproduce the atmosphere created by Wister called for rolling country that was absolutely free from dwellings or even shrubbery.

Los Angeles real estate boosters, however, had made this practically impossible. Open spaces that are not already being converted into subdivisions are so nearly ready for such improvements that no real estate man would permit it to revert to days of "The Virginian" for even a short time.

Six weeks' search throughout Southern California finally revealed just the variety of site needed on the outskirts of the town of Alhambra. A part of a tract of two hundred and forty acres of clear, rolling land was acquired for a period of one year, during which the subdivider is ruled off of the horizon and Casper, as Owen Wister first saw it, will live again.

The longest street built on it is one thousand feet from end to end. It includes such luxuries as two wide open saloons, rooming houses and livery stables of a variety that could never house an automobile.

Director Tom Forman has begun shooting his exterior scenes on the street with a complete population of cowboys, bar tenders, gamblers and other essentials of a Western town.

"This has solved the 'location' problem for us temporarily, but there is no denying that it is getting to be a serious one," said B. P. Schulberg, who is producing Preferred Pictures. "Producing pictures far from studios means portable generators and other costly paraphernalia. Even a few miles out from Los Angeles, with the time consumed in transportation of large numbers of players, and other incidentals, adds materially to the cost of production."

"The Virginian" is now playing at the National Theatre with Kenneth Harlan in the title role.

I Offer Girls

My aids to beauty, and to woman youth

By Edna Wallace Hopper

I had a rich, ambitious mother. She searched the world with me to find the supreme beauty helps.

They made me a famous beauty. And now, after 40 years in the limelight, they keep me a beauty still.

Other girls, in these same ways, can multiply their beauty. Other women can, to old age, keep their youthful bloom. I want to help them do so. The very helps that France gave me are now at your command.

I am very—very busy on the stage. But I am taking time to tell you the secrets of my beauty and my youth. And I hope the time will come when girls and women by the millions will enjoy what I enjoy.

32 Helps in Four

I found 32 things that women need to keep them at their best. French experts combined them in four applications. Thus beauty and perennial youth were made very easy for me.

One is my White Youth Clay. Not like the crude and muddy clays so many use today. This clay is white, refined and dainty. Twenty years of scientific study have made it amazingly efficient.

I use White Youth Clay to purge my skin of all that clogs or mars it. It gives me that rosy, baby-like complexion. Blackheads or pimples, oiliness or blemishes are unknown to me.

It firms the skin, combats all lines and wrinkles, keeps the face skin ever like a girl's.

One application of my White Youth Clay brings almost unbelievable results. Many women seem to drop ten years. Continued use does marvels, as it did for me. No girl or woman who once tries this clay will go without it. The price is 50 cents and $1.

Two Matchless Creams

My Youth Cream is a cold cream, based on lemon and strawberry. It is made to embody all the best that science knows to whiten, feed, protect and smooth the skin. I use it after the clay. It is also my night cream, to apply on retiring. Daytimes I use it as a powder base. No one ever found a cold cream to compare with my Youth Cream.

My Facial Youth is a liquid cleanser. It contains no animal, no vegetable fat. It cannot assimilate in any way with the skin. But it penetrates the skin to the depths. When I wipe it off, all that clogs the skin comes with it. No other method cleans a skin like this.

Luxuriant Hair

My hair is thick and lustrous. It grows finer every year. I have never had falling hair or dandruff, never a touch of gray.

This is due to my Hair Youth, another French creation. I apply it daily with an eye dropper, directly to the scalp. It takes but a moment, and it does not muss the hair. I can do no greater kindness than to urge you to employ it. It costs 50 cents and $1.

All druggists and toilet counters supply these products which I use. The price is small. Every girl or woman, if she will, can have the benefits I got. Go find them out. My Beauty Book comes with each. Edna Wallace Hopper. Business address. Waukesha, Wis.

NOTE—Miss Hopper is now playing the Pantages Vaudeville circuit of the Western States.

METHODIST LADIES HOLD HELPFUL SOCIAL SESSION MONDAY

Monday afternoon at 3:30, about fifty ladies of the Methodist Missionary Society gathered at the lovely home of Mrs. Sam Cox for their last social meeting of the year. This meeting was one of the most enjoyable, beneficial and enthusiastic yet held. Mesdames Sam Cox, A. H. Berry, B. Jackson, Allen Etchison and Wright Kincheloe were the hostesses. The well arranged and well rendered program was in charge of Mrs. W. B. Landrum.

After the opening song, Mrs. Etchison read the scripture lesson, which was taken from Luke 25:37, the story of "The Good Samaritan." The real lesson of helpfulness and mercy, found in this scripture was fully brought out in the effective way in which Mrs. Etchison read, this beautiful parable.

Mrs. Landrum then took up the missionary work we are doing in the United States with the Indians, Negroes, Immigrants, Mountaineers and Mexicans. She made this very clear by using a chain demonstration. Links of different colored paper were written out on each link was recorded something of interest and worth, that was being done for the above mentioned people. As Mrs. Landrum talked on this subject, she called on the different ladies who responded with the facts given on their respective links. After the work had been fully reviewed.

Mrs. Landrum gathered the links, joining them together, the completed chain was placed around an American flag. She further explained that the people we were trying to help, could be fused together with love, prayer, Christian education, service and Salvation. Thus drawn together they form themselves around our nation as the perfect chain so we might become a worthwhile Christian citizenship.

Next we were introduced to "Deconess" Peyton of "The Wesley House." A spontaneous round of applause greeted Mrs. George Peyton, who was most charming, in her impersonation of these wonderful women, who have charge of our Wesley Houses, that are helping both young and old, by Christainizing and training them in body, mind and soul. Mrs. Peyton told many interesting things about the Wesley Houses, especially those in Southern Methodism, and the work they are doing. She too, had given slips containing notes on this work to the ladies which were called for as needed to stress or explain some point in her talk.

Mrs. Landrum then read a letter from Deaconess Riggin, who is in charge of the Wesley House, at Louisville, Ky., she is a personal friend of Mrs. Landrum. Deaconess Riggin wrote of the work she was doing there, and one could tell her whole heart and life were being put into her every effort. By the outline of her daily program, one knew her to be a busy, helpful woman. After seeing her picture, the ladies felt Deaconess Riggin had almost been with them and they wished she might have her every hope realized.

Miss Phronia Ward then offered a prayer for all our Wesley Houses, asking a special blessing for Deaconess Riggin and Miss Eugenia Smith, of the San Antonio Wesley House.

Mrs. Crow read "With the Crowd," a poem which was in line with the work being studied.

A pleasing music number was the solo by Mrs. Strange.

Mrs. Landrum then gave a splendid talk on "A Warless World," quoting statistics to prove her points. One of the most startling facts brought out, by her, was that only 15 cents of every dollar of Federal tax paid, goes for the upkeep of our great Nation, the other 85 cents pays for past wars (including the Revolutionary war) and for prepardness in case of other wars.

Mrs. A. H. Berry read "Let the Nations be Friends," a truly beautiful poem.

A prayer by Mrs. J. W. Kincheloe followed by the ladies all singing "Jesus Found Me When a Stranger." This concluded the program.

Mrs. Berry, the Society president, called attention to the Bennett Memorial Fund, and explained the vital importance of this work; the annual Bazaar, which is to be held in the near future, was mentioned, and all urged to keep it in mind; the box to be sent to some needy work in our District needing immediate attention, every one is urged not to neglect this call; the whole society was asked to try to join the study class.

The Society greeted with pleasure their new pastor Rev. W. B. Andrews. He told the ladies many interesting things about the happenings at the recent Annual Conference. Among the most pleasing was the words of commendation the Bishop had for the work being done by the women of the Church and the fact that the work is rapidly advancing. Another of the many pleasing things told was the promise of a visit from Bishop Dickey in the near future.

The hostesses served dainty refreshments of hot chocolate, sandwiches and mints.

H. W. Freeman had business at the court house today

What Else Did He Expect From Such

HOUSTON, Texas, Nov. 22.—The old wild west came back to Houston when the proprietor of Hide-A-Way Inn, hidden away out on the edge of town, attempted to collect for several chicken dinners.

Police reports said the diners beat the proprietor on the head with revolvers and still imbued with booze and a reckless air pumped the building full of holes with a salvo from a battery of six guns. Before police could arrive they roared down the road, "puncturing the air."

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 21.—Coach "Doc" Stewart of Texas University is working the Longhorns with three regulars absent on account of injuries. Supporters of the team feel confident of a Thanksgiving Day victory over TexasA. & M., however.

Pimples Cause It.

Whenever you go out to places of amusement you can't help but pity the many folks you see trying to have a good time, but are so shrinking and backward about coming near others where they can see their pimply, blotchy and eczemic skin that you can see they are only torturing their minds instead of throwing all cares to the four winds and enjoying themeslves.

You almost feel like going up to them and telling them that they ought to begin using the wonderful Black and White Ointment, which so many thousands of happy people are depending on to keep their skin clean, smooth and good to look at.

Black and White Ointment is selling at the phenominal rate of nearly two million packages a year, and the fact that it is so economically priced is largely responsible for this record. The 50c size contains three times as much as the 25c size. All dealers have it. —(Adv.)

COSTS $4000 TO PUT BABIES TO SLEEP

To one afternoon's nap for twelve babies—$4,000.

The infants were used by Tom Forman in filming "The Virginian" and the fact that it took two days to "lullaby" all of the dozen into visiting the "sand-man" at one and the same time, caused the above entry to appear on the books of the B. P. Schulberg studio.

It was necessary for the babies to enter "The Land of Nod" collectively for Kenneth Harlan, as "The Virgainian" to play his prank of changing their clothes and switching them about so their fond parents would merrily depart from a housewarming with the wrong child.

The entire Virginian cast and one hundred "extra" players were almost at a standstill while twelve anxious mothers sang "Rock-A-Bye Baby," "Daddy's got a rabbit skin to wrap the baby in" and other oldtime nursery lines. When the babies, either worn out by the singing or for some other cause, fell asleep, Director Tom Forman breathed a sigh or relief and remarked: "Two scenes shot today at a cost of $4,000.'

"The Virginian" is coming to the National Theatre Thursday and features in its cast, Kenneth Harlan, Florence Vidor, Pat O'Malley, Russell Simpson and Raymond Hatton.

Karem Crowd Is In Waco In Large Number

Seven coaches left the local T. & P. station at 8:15 this morning bearing the Mexia Shrine club contingent to Karem ceremonial at Waco. The train left Teague at 7:30 bringing about 60 from that point. More than 100 boarded the cars here and additional numbers were picked up en route to Waco.

The train crew was composed of Nobles.

The crowd making the trip was composed of Shriners, novices Masons and their ladies.

Rodney Tidwell left a sure winner in the race for Karem ring. He was accompanied by the Famous Shrine Club Jelly Bean band. His campaign manager, H. E. Littman shared his duties with every other Noble from this section who are solid behind his candidacy. He was strikingly attired in a uniform by his own special tailor, conforming to his manly eel like form, skin tight trousers and cutaway coat, topped off with a low crowned derby.

The Jelly Bean band was also specially attired for the occasion and left rendering the highest class music of which they are capable, it was claimed.

Although the skies were overcast with clouds when the train pulled out, the strains of "How Dry I Am" could be heard above the silence of pent up enthusiasm which was expected to break loose before long.

The crowds seemed rather serious about the undertaking when they left, the band offering the chief diversion and the novices being treated very tamely. However, it was claimed that some of the Nobles making the excursion had "a wicked look in their eyes" and the party knew when they left that a great and gala day was ahead.

The train was bedecked in National and Karem colors. The engine was a real attraction, with its American flag at the front, Shrine emblems on the mail car, bunting tied from one end of the locomotive to the other and fez topped trainmen aboard.

The last car bore the banner: "Mexia Shrine Club Special."

The band was conveyed along with the bananas and other fruit in the "male car" and from the stack of things to eat, it appeared that meal time would be in order all the way. The novices were to act as salesmen on the trip up.

Groesbeck and Wortham Shriners gathered here to join the party while others of the Mexia Shrine club were to be picked up en route.

A large quantity of literature was carried advocating the candidacy of Buck Tidwell and both men and women of the party wore arm bands bearing the words "Mexia Shrine Club."

Frank Bolton, President of the Mexia Shrine club, and Sam Werner, Secretary, were officially in charge of the party, assisted by Trainmaster Noble A. Zeanon.

The trainmen were:

J. F. Fulton, engineer, Elmina.
S. J. Bennett, Conductor, Moslah.
F. Savage, brakeman, Karem.
L. J. Honea, fireman, Moslah.
T. J. Hunt, Roadmaster, Karem.

Philadelphia Has Ford for President Club and Platform

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22.—A Ford-for-President organization to boost the "flivver king" for the 1924 Presidential nomination has been formed here.

Three hundred and eight-four persons are charter members of the Ford club. Each charter member must procure twenty bona fide signatures to a petition to "force" Ford to be a candidate of "the people" in 1924, or be dropped from the organization.

The club adopted seven resolutions:

1—Development of Muscle Shoals and Niagara Falls and rivers for electrification to aid transportation, as outlined by Ford.

2—No Polar expeditions by Government airplanes, as the aircrafts could be used in carrying mail.

3—No booze smoke screens. The wet and dry issue should not be discussed to divert the public mind from transportation and conservation of natural resources.

4—No more loans to Europe unless the collateral is protected by the world court and a bankable mortgage.

5—No more money to feed Germany while great stocks of foods are rotting in this country because of transportation problems.

6—Approval of Fords suggestion that bridges and tunnels be given greater attention.

7—Ford can "keep us out of war" by decentralization of friction by the Ambassadors' Council, the League of Nations and the World Court.

Coach "Doc" Stewart is worried over the prospects of having several of his best men on the hospital list, who in all probability will not be able to enter the game against the Aggies on Turkey Day. Robby Robinson the Longhorn quarterback was injured in the game with the Sooners last Saturday and if he is not around into condition before Nov. 29 the Steers may suffer badly for want of a field general.

"Buddy" Tynes, Varsity captain of the Longhorns has been forced to the sidelines for the last three games on account of an injured ankle and more than likely will be unable to enter the final tray at College Station. Spargue is also out of the lineup with a wrenched knee and will be missed at tackle, while Newell the varsity end is recovering from a spell of sickness in an Austin hospital. We don't blame Coach Stewart from being a little uneasy about facing Bible's aggregation.

Although A. & M. made a very poor showing against the Rice Owls Coach Bible may be holding something back for the Longhorns. At any rate the Texas squad has never won a game or scored a touchdown on Kyle field at College Station. They may accomplish the impossible, we believe the game will be worth traveling thousands of miles to see.

Looks like the locals have about ended their career for this season, so far they have no other games scheduled. In their last game they showed that they were getting better with every game and won over the strong Ennis squad. We would like to see a game here Turkey Day for the ones who remain behind.

Football reaches the peek of the season in the East Saturday when the two ancient foes meet. Yale has a fine opportunity to win the first big three title in seven years, when they play Harvard at Cambridge. "Tad" Jones' all star backfield may have a little more trouble with the Crimson line than they had with Princeton last Saturday because Harvard has built up a sturdy defense that may give trouble. Harvard has made a poor showing so far while Yale has been sweeping everything before them and are the big favorites.

TERRIFIC FIGHTING .. ..d,ticMI
By GUSTAV M. OEHM
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, Nov. 21.—Terrific fighting in the Rhineland in which more than 130 separatists were killed in the last week was reported in delayed dispatches today from Cologne.

Seventy were reported killed in one battle between separatists and citizens loyal to the German Reich near Aegidienberg.

Six more separatists were reported beaten to death by peasants near the town of Honnef, where fighting was reported Saturday.

They were dragged from automobiles, it was reported.

Delay in revelation of the fighting was explained by the fact that the district is almost entirely cut off from communication with the outside world.

Honnef was reported freed of separatists following action of the French autohorities in disarming many of them.

Heavy fighting was said to be going on in Koenigswinter.

In a battle in Poevel peasants surrounded thirty separatists and killed twenty-three, it was reported.

Citizens were said to have hastily organized defense groups who were using every means to drive the separatists out of the Rhineland.

In unemployed riots in Silesia reports today said two were killed in Lignitz in fighting which police for a time were held powerless. Unemployed were reported plundering in many places.

Promises Square Deal For Fighters

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Announcing a policy directed at construction, rather than destruction, a spirit of co-operative supervision instead of autocratic dominance and a perference for common sense, the recently reorganized New York Boxing Commission has a good chance to assume the place of respect to which it is entitled as the governing body of boxing in the sport's biggest and most important field.

William Muldoon, whose misdirected, though honest and sincere zeal, caused the commission to become the laughing stock of the boxing world, has been set back to a rather minor seat in the council, and William J. McCormick has succeeded him as the dominating personality of the commission.

McCormick is young and he has "been around." He started as a laborer on the East River water-front and worked himself up until he is now the general manager of the biggest trucking firm in New York. He knows how to handle men, and as a thirty-third degree boxing fan, he knows how to handle boxers.

McCormick's first stroke in the attempt to get the commission back into repute came with the announcement the commission would revert back to the old cardinal rule of the game that championships are won and lost only in the ring.

Muldoon's administration had tried to establish the precedent of dethroning champions and setting up new ones by passing resolution in official session, and it resulted in open ridicule for the commission.

McCormick then started a campaign to bring the commission down to boxing, intead of lifting the sport to the heights that Muldoon had assumed were the rightful provinces of the commission.

Muldoon would not suffer boxers, managers or sport writers near the sacred confines of the commission offices and he acted on the theory that there was no appeal from the rulings of the commission.

McCormick threw the doors of the commission open and invited all the boxers, managers and sport writers to come in, take off their coats and go to it.

Recently, after the announcement had been made that no more titles would be declared forfeited and that champions who would not defend their titles in the future would be penalized only by a suspension, McCormick invited all the champions, their managers and the boxing writers to come in and talk it over.

Mickey Walker, suspended welterweight champion, and Joe Lynch, suspended bantamweight champion, and their managers were surprised when they were invited to attend the meeting.

Managers of champions, in the good graces of the commission, also expressed surprise, because the commission had shown an inclination to even permit them within the outside rail.

McCormick told them as long as he was a member of the commission that the boxer was going to get an even break.

He criticized the actions of Muldoon and said that he would not be a party to any more unfair mistakes.

Reports brought to Mexia are to the effect that the Pickens No. 1 of the Keechi Petroleum Company on the Pruett survey 20 miles Southeast of Teague is showing for production. Casing has been set and cemented but has been slightly delayed on account of fishing job on tools but these are being removed. The bailer on being run shows considerable oil, gas and parafine. YALE LOOKS TO HARVARD GAME WITH MUCH HOPE

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Considering that in sixteen years Yale has not scored a touchdown on Harvard's field and that in the same period Yale has scored only one touchdown against Harvard any place. it can be realized with what hope for a feast Yale looks to the battle with Harvard next Saturday in Cambridge.

Yale seems to have one of the best teams in its history. Certainly it is the best eleven that has represented Yale since Cupil Black's fine team of 1916.

Harvard apparently has the worst team of years and Harvard feels at heart that the only chance for victory rests in the possibility that Yale will beat itself.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—Everett P. Leonard and his son were arrested here while attempting to kidnap Naylor a second time, police said they believed.

Naylor told police of the kidnaping when he was "tipped" his abductors were on their way to "get him again."

Naylor returned to Chicago six days ago after being held captive in the Leonard home at Chattanooga, he told police. He signed contracts and agreements to pay certain sums before the Leonards would release him, he declared.

Cook And Cox Rest In Jail Under Sentence

FOR WORTH, Texas, Nov. 22.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, self-styled discoverer of the North Pole; S. E. J. Cox, Houston oil promoter and the 12 other defendants in the mail fraud trials in federal court here who were found guilty yesterday, rested today in the county jail.

No favoritism was shown to Cook by jail attendants. He was in an ordinary dingey cell just as were the others.

Last night, after sentence had been pronounced on the men by Federal Judge John M. Killits, the "hoodlum wagon" backed up to the door of the federal building and Cook and his associates in the Petroleum Producers Association were driven off to jail while the wives of 11 of the prisoners sobbed on the steps of the building.

Cook's appeal bond was set at $75,000 by Judge Killits. Joseph W. Bailey, chief counsel for the defense declared his client would be unable to furnish this sum. This means that Cook will have to spend probably a year in jail while his case is going through the courts.

Even should he be able to furnish the amount, it will be several weeks before he can raise the bond, Bailey said.

Cook and Cox refused to talk to newspaper men today. They had nothing to say when Judge Killits interrogated them last night although others of the defendants argued with the court.

Three other indictments are still pending against Cook.

Charged with fraud in the "merging" of his Texas Eagle Oil company with the Revere Oil company, Cook will go to trial again December 10 in Fort Worth. There are 30 defendants in all in this case.

He is also under indictment in Cleveland in connection with distribution of stock and literature of the Petroleum Producers Association in Ohio.

The third indictment is lodged against Cook in Los Angeles in connection with the operations of the Revere Oil company there.

Federal officials today predicted wholesale pleas of guilty in these trials as a result of the sentencing of the 14 men here yesterday.

FORT WORTH, Texas, Nov. 22.—The jury in the trial of Dr. Frederick A. Cook and his 14 associates who are charged with using the mails to defraud in connection with promotion of the Petroleum Producers Association, resumed its deliberations shortly af? 9 a. m. today.

The case went to the jury late Tuesday.

FORT WORTH, Texas, Nov. 22.—Just a year ago, Dr. Frederick A. Cook as head of the Petroleum Producers Association, was sending out circulars and letters to prospective buyers of oil stock in his company branding the fake oil promoter as the "most contemptible human wretch breathes God's pure air."

Today, Cook with 13 of his associates are in the Tarrant county jail here, found guilty in charges of using the mails to defraud in the sale of oil stock.

Robert E. Lee was the foreman of the jury that found Cook and others guilty.

Some Good Advice For One Capable Of Giving A Tip

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 22.—Take t from one who knows, boys, and lon't obey that impulse to quit school nd take up the life of a "Knight of he Road."

So says Jeff Davis, who calls himself "King of the Hobo Clan," Davis stopped in El Paso recently.

The world doesn't look nearly so attractive from a rattling "side door Pullman" as it does from the front door steps, he says.

And Jeff should know. He's traveled around the world he says, and is now on his sixth circuit jaunt. He estimates he has "hoboed" some 800,000 miles.

To those who have already heeded the urge of the wanderlust, Davis says.

"Chase yourself home, bo; brush the cobwebs from the lips of your ma with a kiss. You guys don't know what the old fireplace really means until you go nuts and think you ought to see the world from the door of a box car."

Seventy five thousand of the boys now in reform schools are there because of bad habits picked up on the bum, Davis said, in a parting word of advise to those inclined to trip the lies to the far places.

"The world is traveling at too fast a clip," Davis said.

"What we need is a return to the good old days of Grandpa and Grandma."

Auction Sale Big Success

The Conyers Live Stock & Feed Corporation held an auction sale of horses and mules at Mexia on Monday, November 19th. They had many buyers from various parts of Central and East Texas as well as many buyers from the local territory and sold all they had at this sale. The Conyers people state that they expect to make Mexia one of the leading horse and mule markets of Central Texas. They have advertised another sale for Nov. 27th.

This wholesale industry will widen Mexia trade territory as it will bring many people to Mexia to buy their work animals who have not in the past been doing business in this city.

"JUST TOWN TALK"

By GUMP

I WAS informed
EARLY THIS morning
BY A local "addict"
THAT THE "Open Season"
ON THE "Radio Bug"
HAS BEEN officially announced.
AND THAT from now on
UNTIL WELL into summer
ONE CAN expect
TO BE annoyed
TO A certain extent
BY WEATHER reports
AND BED time stories
AND ALL such like
AND THEN he told me
THAT HE had invested
IN A complete new set
AND HE confided in me
THAT IN his estimation
THE PERFECTING of Radio
WAS A great advancement
IN WORLD science
AND WENT on to say
THAT IT should rank
AS THE eighth wonder
OF THE world
AS IT eclipsed
TELEGRAPH AND telephone
AND THE talking machine
AND EXTOLLED in detail
ITS MARVELOUS virtues
AND HOW it was
IF YOU didn't like
WHAT YOU were hearing
YOU COULD shut it off
AND TRY something else
AND THEN he explained
THAT WHILE radio was new
THE PRINCIPLE was old
JUST LIKE the talking machine
THE FIRST one was made
FROM AN ordinary rib
THEN TOM Edison came along
AND INVENTED one
THAT COULD be shut off
AND I was convinced
THAT THE radio
WAS AFTER all
MERELY THE adaptation
OF EARLIER principles
I THANK you.

How Doctors Treat Colds And The Flu.

First Step in Treatment is the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets That Are Nauseless, Safe and Sure.

Doctors have found by experience that no medicine for colds, coughs, sore throat, and influenza can be depended upon for full effectiveness until the liver is made thoroughly active. That is why the first step in the treatment is the nauseless calomel tablets called Calotabs, which are free from the sickening and weakening effects of the old style calomel. Doctors also point out the fact that an active liver may go a long way towards preventing influenza and colds and is one of the most important factors in enabling the patient to successfully withstand an attack and ward off pneumonia.

One or two Calotabs at bed time, with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified, and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Genuine Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large, family-package; ten cents for the small, vest-pocket size. —(Adv.)

Equalization of taxation to make reforestration practicable for large land owners.

Speakers from Western States pledged their assistance to the effort of the South to obtain Federal assistance in reclamation work.

WHOLE CITY BUILT FOR "VIRGINIAN"

Where will the "locations" for big feature productions of the future be found?

With the tendency of film production running toward the elaborate, unusual pictures that require the building of really stupendous settings, location hunters for Los Angeles producers have found that the big open spaces once so common in and about the city are becoming alarmingly few.

The location question has been raised through the difficulties that presented themselves during the filming of B. P. Schulberg's picturization of "The Virginian," which required a faithful reproduction of the town of Casper, Wyoming, just as it looked when Owen Wister first visited it to write his epic of the West.

Finding a spot near the city big enough to permit the building of the picturesque town was itself a task. But a conscientious effort to actually reproduce the atmosphere created by Wister called for rolling country that was absolutely free from dwellings or even shrubbery.

Los Angeles real estate boosters, however, had made this practically impossible. Open spaces that are not already being converted into subdivisions are so nearly ready for such improvements that no real estate man would permit it to revert to days of "The Virginian" for even a short time.

Six weeks' search throughout Southern California finally revealed just the variety of site needed on the outskirts of the town of Alhambra. A part of a tract of two hundred and forty acres of clear, rolling land was acquired for a period of one year, during which the subdivider is ruled off of the horizon and Casper, as Owen Wister first saw it, will live again.

The longest street built on it is one thousand feet from end to end. It includes such luxuries as two wide open saloons, rooming houses and livery stables of a variety that could never house an automobile.

Director Tom Forman has begun shooting his exterior scenes on the street with a complete population of cowboys, bar tenders, gamblers and other essentials of a Western town.

"This has solved the 'location' problem for us temporarily, but there is no denying that it is getting to be a serious one," said B. P. Schulberg, who is producing Preferred Pictures. "Producing pictures far from studios means portable generators and other costly paraphernalia. Even a few miles out from Los Angeles, with the time consumed in transportation of large numbers of players, and other incidentals, adds materially to the cost of production."

"The Virginian" is now playing at the National Theatre with Kenneth Harlan in the title role.

I Offer Girls

My aids to beauty, and to woman youth

By Edna Wallace Hopper

I had a rich, ambitious mother. She searched the world with me to find the supreme beauty helps.

They made me a famous beauty. And now, after 40 years in the limelight, they keep me a beauty still.

Other girls, in these same ways, can multiply their beauty. Other women can, to old age, keep their youthful bloom. I want to help them do so. The very helps that France gave me are now at your command.

I am very—very busy on the stage. But I am taking time to tell you the secrets of my beauty and my youth. And I hope the time will come when girls and women by the millions will enjoy what I enjoy.

32 Helps in Four

I found 32 things that women need to keep them at their best. French experts combined them in four applications. Thus beauty and perennial youth were made very easy for me.

One is my White Youth Clay. Not like the crude and muddy clays so many use today. This clay is white, refined and dainty. Twenty years of scientific study have made it amazingly efficient.

I use White Youth Clay to purge my skin of all that clogs or mars it. It gives me that rosy, baby-like complexion. Blackheads or pimples, oiliness or blemishes are unknown to me.

It firms the skin, combats all lines and wrinkles, keeps the face skin ever like a girl's.

One application of my White Youth Clay brings almost unbelievable results. Many women seem to drop ten years. Continued use does marvels, as it did for me. No girl or woman who once tries this clay will go without it. The price is 50 cents and $1.

Two Matchless Creams

My Youth Cream is a cold cream, based on lemon and strawberry. It is made to embody all the best that science knows to whiten, feed, protect and smooth the skin. I use it after the clay. It is also my night cream, to apply on retiring. Daytimes I use it as a powder base. No one ever found a cold cream to compare with my Youth Cream.

My Facial Youth is a liquid cleanser. It contains no animal, no vegetable fat. It cannot assimilate in any way with the skin. But it penetrates the skin to the depths. When I wipe it off, all that clogs the skin comes with it. No other method cleans a skin like this.

Luxuriant Hair

My hair is thick and lustrous. It grows finer every year. I have never had falling hair or dandruff, never a touch of gray.

This is due to my Hair Youth, another French creation. I apply it daily with an eye dropper, directly to the scalp. It takes but a moment, and it does not muss the hair. I can do no greater kindness than to urge you to employ it. It costs 50 cents and $1.

All druggists and toilet counters supply these products which I use. The price is small. Every girl or woman, if she will, can have the benefits I got. Go find them out. My Beauty Book comes with each. Edna Wallace Hopper. Business address. Waukesha, Wis.

METHODIST LADIES HOLD HELPFUL SOCIAL SESSION MONDAY

Monday afternoon at 3:30, about fifty ladies of the Methodist Missionary Society gathered at the lovely home of Mrs. Sam Cox for their last social meeting of the year. This meeting was one of the most enjoyable, beneficial and enthusiastic yet held. Mesdames Sam Cox, A. H. Berry, J. B. Jackson, Allen Etchison and Wright Kincheloe were the hostesses. The well arranged and well rendered program was in charge of Mrs. W. B. Landrum.

After the opening song, Mrs. Etchison read the scripture lesson, which was taken from Luke 25:37, the story of "The Good Samaritan." The real lesson of helpfulness and mercy, found in this scripture was fully brought out by the effective way in which Mrs. Etchison read, this beautiful parable.

Mrs. Landrum then took up the missionary work we are doing in the United States with the Indians, Negroes, Immigrants, Mountaineers and Mexicans. She made this very clear by using a chain demonstration. Links of different colored paper were given out on each link was recorded something of interest and worth, that was being done for the above mentioned people. As Mrs. Landrum talked on this subject, she called on the different ladies who responded with the data given on their respective links. After the work had been fully reviewed Mrs. Landrum gathered the links, joining them together, the completed chain was placed around an American flag. She further explained that the people we were trying to help, could be fused together with love, prayer, Christian education, service and Salvation. Thus drawn together they could throw themselves around our nation as a protecting chain so we might achieve a worthwhile Christian citizenship.

Next we were introduced to "Deconess" Peyton of "The Wesley House." A spontaneous round of applause greeted Mrs. George Peyton, who was most charming, in her impersonation of these wonderful women, who have charge of our Wesley Houses, that are helping both young and old, by Christainizing and training them in body, mind and soul. Mrs. Peyton told many interesting things about the Wesley Houses, especially those in Southern Methodism, and the work they are doing. She too, had given slips containing notes on this work to the ladies which were called for as needed to stress or explain some point in her talk.

Mrs. Landrum then read a letter from Deaconess Riggin, who is in charge of the Wesley House, at Louisville, Ky., she is a personal friend of Mrs. Landrum. Deaconess Riggin wrote of the work she was doing there, and one could tell her whole heart and life were being put into her every effort. By the outline of her daily program, one knew her to be a busy, helpful woman. After seeing her picture, the ladies felt Deaconess Riggin had almost been with them and they wished she might have her every hope realized.

Miss Phronia Ward then offered a prayer for all our Wesley Houses, asking a special blessing for Deaconess Riggin and Miss Eugenia Smith, of the San Antonio Wesley House.

Mrs. Crow read "With the Crowd," a poem which was in line with the work being studied.

A pleasing music number was the solo by Mrs. Strange.

Mrs. Landrum then gave a splendid talk on "A Warless World," quoting statistics to prove her points. One of the most startling facts brought out, by her, was that only 15 cents of every dollar of Federal tax paid, goes for the upkeep of our great Nation, the other 85 cents pays for past wars (including the Revolutionary war) and for prepardness in case of other wars.

Mrs. A. H. Berry read "Let the Nations be Friends," a truly beautiful poem.

A prayer by Mrs. J. W. Kincheloe followed by the ladies all singing "Jesus Found Me When a Stranger." This concluded the program.

Mrs. Berry, the Society president, called attention to the Bennett Memorial Fund, and explained the vital importance of this work; the annual Bazaar, which is to be held in the near future, was mentioned, and all urged to keep it in mind; the box to be sent to some needy work in our District needing immediate attention, every one is urged not to neglect this call; the whole society was asked to try to join the study class.

The Society greeted with pleasure their new pastor Rev. W. B. Andrews. He told the ladies many interesting things about the happenings at the recent Annual Conference. Among the most pleasing was the words of commendation the Bishop had for the work being done by the women of the Church and the fact that the work is rapidly advancing. Another of the many pleasing things told was the promise of a visit from Bishop Dickey in the near future.

The hostesses served dainty refreshments of hot chocolate, sandwiches and mints.

What Else Did He Expect From Such

HOUSTON, Texas, Nov. 22.—The old wild west came back to Houston when the proprietor of Hide-A-Way Inn, hidden away out on the edge of town, attempted to collect for several chicken dinners.

Police reports said the diners beat the proprietor on the head with revolvers and still imbued with booze and a reckless air pumped the building full of holes with a salvo from a battery of six guns. Before police could arrive they roared down the road, "puncturing the air."

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 21.—Coach "Doc" Stewart of Texas University is working the Longhorns with three regulars absent on account of injuries. Supporters of the team feel confident of a Thanksgiving Day victory over TexasA. & M., however.

Pimples Cause It.

Whenever you go out to places of amusement you can't help but pity the many folks you see trying to have a good time, but are so shrinking and backward about coming near others where they can see their pimply, blotchy and eczemic skin that you can see they are only torturing their minds instead of throwing all cares to the four winds and enjoying themeslves.

You almost feel like going up to them and telling them that they ought to begin using the wonderful Black and White Ointment, which so many thousands of happy people are depending on to keep their skin clean, smooth and good to look at.

Black and White Ointment is selling at the phenominal rate of nearly two million packages a year, and the fact that it is so economically priced is largely responsible for this record. The 50c size contains three times as much as the 25c size. All dealers have it. —(Adv.)

COSTS $4000 TO PUT BABIES TO SLEEP

To one afternoon's nap for twelve babies—$4,000.

The infants were used by Tom Forman in filming "The Virginian" and the fact that it took two days to "lullaby" all of the dozen into visiting the "sand-man" at one and the same time, caused the above entry to appear on the books of the B. P. Schulberg studio.

It was necessary for the babies to enter "The Land of Nod" collectively for Kenneth Harlan, as "The Virgainian" to play his prank of changing their clothes and switching them about so their fond parents would merrily depart from a housewarming with the wrong child.

The entire Virginian cast and one hundred "extra" players were almost at a standstill while twelve anxious mothers sang "Rock-A-Bye Baby," "Daddy's got a rabbit skin to wrap the baby in" and other oldtime nursery lines. When the babies, either worn out by the singing or for some other cause, fell asleep, Director Tom Forman breathed a sigh or relief and remarked: "Two scenes shot today at a cost of $4,000.'

"The Virginian" is coming to the National Theatre Thursday and features in its cast, Kenneth Harlan, Florence Vidor, Pat O'Malley, Russell Simpson and Raymond Hatton.

GEORGETOWN.—Rebuilding of the telephone system of this city is under way which will make the local exchange one of the best in the state.

Give Your Sole a Genuine Treat

You have thrown many a pair of good shoes away just becaues the soles were worn through. Perhaps the counters were out of shape, and the welts may have been "shot". Don't do it again. No matter what the condition of the shoe, if the upper is good we can rebuild it and make it almost like new. Perhaps there is a pair of shoes in your closet right this minute that need attention. Bring them to us and permit us to advise you. They may be saved, and many more weeks of wear put into them at very small expense. Be thrifty—have 'em repaired.

Karem Crowd Is In Waco In Large Number

Seven coaches left the local T. & B. station at 8:15 this morning bearing the Mexia Shrine club contingent to Karem ceremonial at Waco. The train left Teague at 7:30 bringing about 60 from that point. More than 100 boarded the cars here and additional numbers were picked up en route to Waco.

The train crew was composed of Nobles.

The crowd making the trip was composed of Shriners, novices, Masons and their ladies.

Rodney Tidwell left a sure winner in the race for Karem ring. He was accompanied by the Famous Shrine Club Jelly Bean band. His campaign manager, H. B. Littman shared his duties with every other Noble from this section who are solid behind his candidacy. He was strikingly attired in a uniform by his own special tailor, conforming to his manly eel like form, skin tight trousers and cutaway coat, topped off with a low crowned derby.

The Jelly Bean band was also specially attired for the occasion and left rendering the highest class music of which they are capable, it was claimed.

Although the skies were overcast with clouds when the train pulled out, the strains of "How Dry I Am" could be heard above the silence of pent up enthusiasm which was expected to break loose before long.

The crowds seemed rather serious about the undertaking when they left, the band offering the chief diversion and the novices being treated very tamely. However, it was claimed that some of the Nobles making the excursion had "a wicked look in their eyes" and the party knew when they left that a great and gala day was ahead.

The train was bedecked in National and Karem colors. The engine was a real attraction, with its American flag at the front, Shrine emblems on the coal car, bunting tied from one end of the locomotive to the other and fez topped trainmen aboard.

The last car bore the banner: "Mexia Shrine Club Special."

The band was conveyed along with the bananas and other fruit in the "male car" and from the stack of things to eat, it appeared that meal time would be in order all the way. The novices were to act as salesmen on the trip up.

Groesbeck and Wortham Shriners gathered here to join the party while others of the Mexia Shrine club were to be picked up en route.

A large quantity of literature was carried advocating the candidacy of Buck Tidwell and both men and women of the party wore arm bands bearing the words "Mexia Shrine Club."

Frank Bolton, President of the Mexia Shrine club, and Sam Werner, Secretary, were officially in charge of the party, assisted by Trainmaster Noble A. Zeanon.

The trainmen were:

J. F. Fulton, engineer, Elmina.
S. J. Bennett, Conductor, Moslah.
F. Savage, brakeman, Karem.
L. J. Honea, fireman, Moslah.
T. J. Hunt, Roadmaster, Karem.

Philadelphia Has Ford for President Club and Platform

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22.—A Ford-for-President organization to boost the "flivver king" for the 1924 Presidential nomination has been formed here.

Three hundred and eight-four persons are charter members of the Ford club. Each charter member must procure twenty bona fide signatures to a petition to "force" Ford to be a candidate of "the people" in 1924, or be dropped from the organization.

The club adopted seven resolutions:

1—Development of Muscle Shoals and Niagara Falls and rivers for electrification to aid transportation, as outlined by Ford.

2—No Polar expeditions by Government airplanes, as the aircrafts could be used in carrying mail.

3—No booze smoke screens. The wet and dry issue should not be discussed to divert the public mind from transportation and conservation of natural resources.

4—No more loans to Europe unless the collateral is protected by the world court and a bankable mortgage.

5—No more money to feed Germany while great stocks of foods are rotting in this country because of transportation problems.

6—Approval of Fords suggestion that bridges and tunnels be given greater attention.

7—Ford can "keep us out of war" by decentralization of friction by the Ambassadors' Council, the League of Nations and the World Court.

Coach "Doc" Stewart is worried over the prospects of having several of his best men on the hospital list, who in all probibility will not be able to enter the game against the Aggies on Turkey Day. Robby Robinson the Longhorn quarterback was injured in the game with the Sooners last Saturday and if he is not around into condition before Nov. 29 the Steers may suffer badly for want of a field general.

"Buddy" Tynes, Varsity captain of the Longhorns has been forced to the sidelines for the last three games on account of an injured ankle and more than likely will be unable to enter at tackle, while Newell the varsity end is recovering from a spell of sickness in an Austin hospital. We don't blame Coach Stewart from being a little uneasy about facing Bible's aggregation.

Although A. & M. made a very poor showing against the Rice Owls Coach Bible may be holding something back for the Longhorns. At any rate the Texas squad has never won a game or scored a touchdown on Kyle field at College Station. They may accomplish the impossible, we believe the game will be worth traveling thousands of miles to see.

Looks like the locals have about ended their career for this season, so far they have no other games scheduled. In their last game they showed that they were getting better with every game and won over the strong Ennis squad. We would like to see a game here Turkey Day for the ones who remain behind.

Football reaches the peek of the season in the East Saturday when the two ancient foes meet. Yale has a fine opportunity to win the first big three title in seven years, when they play Harvard at Cambridge. "Tad" Jones' all star backfield may have a little more trouble with the Crimson line than they had with Princeton last Saturday because Harvard has built up a sturdy defense that may give trouble. Harvard has made a poor showing so far while Yale has been sweeping everything before them and are the big favorites.

TERRIFIC FIGHTING ....d,ticMI

By GUSTAV M. OEHM
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, Nov. 21.—Terrific fighting in the Rhineland in which more than 130 separatists were killed in the last week was reported in delayed dispatches today from Cologne.

Seventy were reported killed in one battle between separatists and citizens loyal to the German Reich near Aegidienberg.

Six more separatists were reported beaten to death by peasants near the town of Honnef, where fighting was reported Saturday.

They were dragged from automobiles, it was reported.

Delay in revelation of the fighting was explained by the fact that the district is almost entirely cut off from communication with the outside world.

Honnef was reported freed of separatists following action of the French autohorities in disarming many of them.

Heavy fighting was said to be going on in Koenigswinter.

In a battle in Poevel peasants surrounded thirty separatists and killed twenty-three, it was reported.

Citizens were said to have hastily organized defense groups who were using every means to drive the separatists out of the Rhineland.

In unemployed riots in Silesia reports today said two were killed in Lignitz in fighting which police for a time were held powerless. Unemployed were reported plundering in many places.

Promises Square Deal For Fighters

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Announcing a policy directed at construction, rather than destruction, a spirit of co-operative supervision instead of autocratic dominance and a perference for common sense, the recently reorganized New York Boxing Commission has a good chance to assume the place of respect to which it is entitled as the governing body of boxing in the sport's biggest and most important field.

William Muldoon, whose misdirected, though honest and sincere zeal, caused the commission to become the laughing stock of the boxing world, has been set back to a rather minor seat in the council, and William J. McCormick has succeeded him as the dominating personality of the commission.

McCormick is young and he has "been around." He started as a laborer on the East River water-front and worked himself up until he is now the general manager of the biggest trucking firm in New York. He knows how to handle men, and as a thirty-third degree boxing fan, he knows how to handle boxers.

McCormick's first stroke in the attempt to get the commission back into repute came with the announcement the commission would revert back to the old cardinal rule of the game that championships are won and lost only in the ring.

Muldoon's administration had tried to establish the precedent of dethroning champions and setting up new ones by passing resolution in official session, and it resulted in open ridicule for the commission.

McCormick then started a campaign to bring the commission down to boxing, intead of lifting the sport to the heights that Muldoon had assumed were the rightful provinces of the commission.

Muldoon would not suffer boxers, managers or sport writers near the sacred confines of the commission offices and he acted on the theory that there was no appeal from the rulings of the commission.

McCormick threw the doors of the commission open and invited all the boxers, managers and sport writers to come in, take off their coats and go to it.

Recently, after the announcement had been made that no more titles would be declared forfeited and that champions who would not defend their titles in the future would be penalized only by a suspension, McCormick invited all the champions, their managers and the boxing writers to come in and talk it over.

Mickey Walker, suspended welterweight champion, and Joe Lynch, suspended bantamweight champion, and their managers were surprised when they were invited to attend the meeting.

Managers of champions, in the good graces of the commission, also expressed surprise, because the commission had shown an inclination to even permit them within the outside rail.

McCormick told them as long as he was a member of the commission that the boxer was going to get an even break.

He criticized the actions of Muldoon and said that he would not be a party to any more unfair mistakes.
